

Seville Homestead

Nestled into the landscape and within the surrounds of vineyards and newly established gardens sits the Homestead. Built by Dr Peter McMahon and his wife Margret in 1975, It has been lovingly restored by their grandson and his family in 2018. The Homestead offers a place to unwind and celebrate family and friends in a stunning contemporary space overlooking the pool area, native gardens and the distant hills to the west.

We have lovingly restored the house to be both comfortable, contemporary and stylish. We have sourced handcrafted items from our friends whom have made the tables, cabinetry and have breathed new love into a space we feel has been instrumental in the Seville Estate story. We now offer their home for your family and friends. A retreat nestled on the edge of the Yarra Valley only 50 minutes from the heart of vibrant Melbourne.
